City Manager Recruitment Profile

Public Comment on February 9

Current City Manager Kimball Payne is retiring from his position effective June 30, 2016. Lynchburg City Council is developing a profile to assist in their recruitment efforts to fill the position Payne's retirement will create.

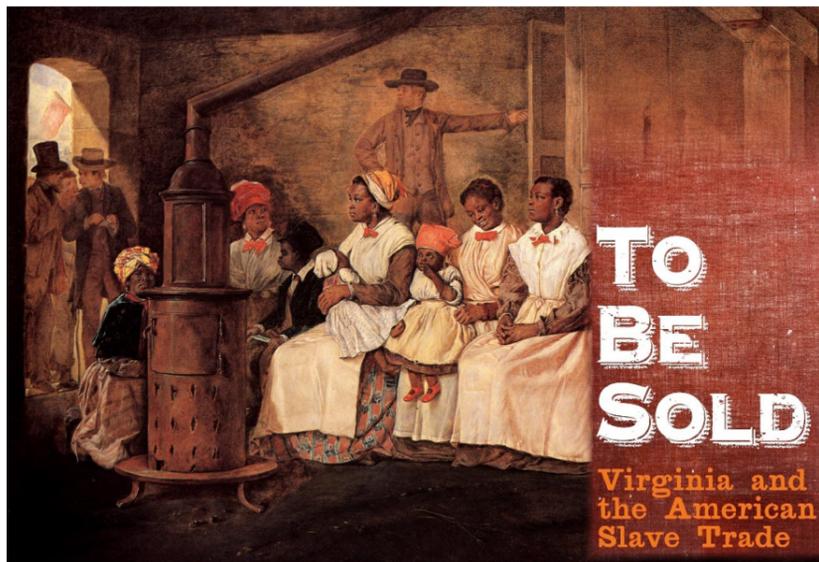

The recruitment profile describes the desirable characteristics of candidates in terms of experience, leadership style, and performance and will provide insight to some of the challenges and opportunities that the new City Manager will experience.

A draft recruitment profile, which can be read online at LynchburgisListening.com, has been developed and will be finalized by City Council during its meeting on February 9 at 7:30 p.m. in Council Chamber, City Hall, 900 Church Street, Lynchburg.

Citizens are encouraged to attend the public comment period which will be held prior to Council finalizing the profile.

In offering your comments, areas to consider include, but are not limited to: things of importance that you believe are missing from the profile document, additional characteristics or qualities City Council should look for in a City Manager, other challenges and/or opportunities that should be included in the profile.

Lynchburg Museum Exhibit

The year 1853 in Richmond Virginia: A traveling British artist casually peruses a city newspaper and scans the ever-present notices of slave auctions alongside advertisements for dry goods, patent medicines and runaway slaves. His curiosity aroused, he decides to attend a sale of human beings. The resulting sketches and paintings by artist Eyre Crowe created an enduring image and record of Virginia's infamous trade. To Be Sold: Virginia and the American Slave Trade, a traveling exhibition from the Library of Virginia, will be on view at the Lynchburg Museum, 901 Court Street, until March 6, 2016. Admission is free. The Museum is open from 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Monday through Saturday and from 12 noon to 4:00 p.m. on Sundays.

African American Genealogy Workshop

Friday, February 19, 2:00 p.m.

The Legacy Museum of African American History and the Martin Luther King Center for Human Rights are exhibit partners and will host an African American genealogy workshop and lecture in the Community Room at the Lynchburg Public Library, 2315 Memorial Avenue. The exhibit and programs are supported by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities.
