

Lynchburg Police Department Press Release

August 23, 2016

There will be a retirement ceremony for LPD K9 Agar on Monday, August 29, 2016 at 9:00 a.m. in front of the West Building (805 Court Street). Agar's retirement is due to his recent diagnosis of bone cancer. Please join us to honor the service he has provided to the LPD and the Citizens of Lynchburg.

Agar has served the Lynchburg Police Department since September of 2011 and he was handled by Officers D.W. Stump and N.R. Godsie. Agar has not only been responsible for the safety of his two handlers but for all members of the L.P.D. on patrol and the citizens of the greater Lynchburg area. Agar has always been eager to do his job and has been a loyal partner. He will be greatly missed.
