

Lynchburg Police Department Press Release

July 8, 2016

In response to the events that occurred last night in Dallas, TX, Chief Diaz of the Lynchburg Police Department states:

“We at the Lynchburg Police Department stand in solidarity and support of the fallen and wounded officers in Dallas, as well as their families. Our thoughts and prayers are also with their community who is going through this horrific experience. The divisiveness must stop!

Our Police officers live in this community—we are a part of the community that we protect and serve. We will not let the elements of disunity pull us apart.

In the city of Lynchburg, our officers continue to receive support and admiration for their professionalism and continued community outreach. The Lynchburg Police Department is extremely grateful for the support that it continues to garner from our community.”
